The following is a summary of main development achievements to which the United Nations (UN) agencies, in collaboration with the Government of Sudan and other partners, contributed in 2017 as part of the UN Development Assistance Framework (UNDAF).
UNDAF Focus Area 1
Economic Development and Poverty Reduction

$38.6M

- 7 water source facilities constructed
- 300 households received increased income through support in the areas of vegetable garden activities and skills development
- 50 road structures to remove choking points on feeder roads constructed
- 600 women in 6 villages in East Darfur trained on a range of income generating activities
- 2,818 least advantaged young community members trained in entrepreneurial and vocational skills
- 4,033 groups and association members registered (41.5% female) for access to microfinance
- 5 hafirs rehabilitated
- 22 sub-surface dams constructed
- 3 integrated business development centres constructed
- 4 animal fodder stores constructed
- 1,358 least advantaged young community members temporarily employed
- 332 people (75% female) completed vocational training in addition to entrepreneurship and small business management training sessions
- 2,501 candidates registered for vocational training in the 5 Darfur states
- 3 vocational training centers rehabilitated

Completed Activities:
- 7 water source facilities
- 600 women in East Darfur
- 2,818 least advantaged young community members
- 4,033 groups and association members
- 5 hafirs
- 22 sub-surface dams
- 3 integrated business development centres
- 4 animal fodder stores
- 1,358 least advantaged young community members
- 332 people (75% female)
- 2,501 candidates registered for vocational training
- 3 vocational training centers
UNDAF Focus Area 2
Environment Climate Resilience and Disaster Risk Management

193,000 people gained increased resilience to extreme weather shocks (droughts and floods) through joint programming in 4 localities in Kassala state (Hamish Koreb, Telkuk, North Delta, Aroma localities).

7 automatic weather stations and 162 rain gauges installed in 6 states providing climate and rainfall readings for farmer groups.

5,000 households benefited from agricultural services.

Daily firewood consumption per person reduced by 40%, which eventually resulted in savings of firewood and forest lands.

7,000 hectares of land rehabilitated for forests or range-lands and pastures.

130,000 households benefited from the use of fuel efficient stoves; 174,453 households benefited from fire fuel briquettes activities in Darfur states.

190 sacks of pasture seeds were distributed and planted in North Darfur.

30,000 livestock vaccinated.

98 members of Gum Arabic Producers Associations trained in tapping techniques in East Darfur.

102 community members in East Darfur trained in joint forest management.

24 million people benefitted from 7,600 vector control campaigns and over 460,000 house fly-breeding sites in 17 states.

$20.2 M
UNDAF Focus Area 3
Social Services

$236.0 M

277 out of 335 fistula cases detected surgically treated and 3 fistula centres rehabilitated in North Darfur, South
Darfur and Kassala states

2.9 million vulnerable people gained access to gender-sensitive improved water sources through construction/rehabilitation of improved water sources, operation and maintenance and water supply disinfection at water sources, water transportation means and household water containers

227,887 children received treatment for severe acute malnutrition

Counselling was provided to 285,070 caregivers and an additional 339,318 caregivers were reached through facility-based counselling

1,000
communities declared the abandonment of female genital mutilation/cutting

National coverage of integrated management of childhood illnesses services increased from 65% in 2016 to 72% in 2017

1,225 alerts of disease outbreaks investigated; most of the alerts were on acute watery diarrhoea and measles

4,298 different medical staff categories in Darfur states, Blue Nile, South Kordofan, East Sudan and White Nile, including 1,260 surveillance officers trained on communicable diseases surveillance, early warning and reporting system, rapid response teams and outbreak response

4,000 medical staff in 9 states supported in different areas including disease surveillance, integrated management of childhood diseases and health promotion

635 staff trained on community health promotion

163 medical doctors and medical assistants trained on integrated management of childhood illnesses

New midwifery education programme established and 151 health care providers trained on safe motherhood protocol in South Darfur (80), North Darfur (16), Central Darfur (30) and White Nile (25) states

1,017 abandoned children (452 boys and 565 girls) benefited from a protective family environment

167 schools provided with access to improved sanitation facilities

1,200 cases per week of acute watery diarrhoea reduced to less than 40 cases per week during the nationwide outbreak

10,290 women benefited from lifesaving drugs

Weekly health coordination meetings attended by different State Ministry of Health Directors and 4 international and national nongovernmental organizations in White Nile, East Darfur, South Kordofan, West Kordofan and South Darfur

Provided medicine and medical supplies to an estimated 574,000 beneficiaries
21 health facilities rehabilitated and equipped to provide emergency obstetric and newborn care

68,700 newborns benefitted from essential newborn care services

360 staff trained on emergency obstetric and newborn care services

171,300 group discussions and 360,000 house-to-house campaigns conducted on hygiene promotion

580 water, sanitation hygiene sector partners (314 male, 266 female) trained on key technical and managerial issues

29 health facilities supported to provide clinical management of rape services (in Darfur, East Sudan, Kassala, South Kordofan & Khartoum)

187 health carers trained on clinical management of rape services (in Darfur, East Sudan, Kassala, South Kordofan & Khartoum)

75,000 students (35,226 boys and 39,774 girls) gained access to gender sensitive and child-friendly latrines, a major contributing factor to girls’ enrolment and retention

25,000 beneficiaries with improved access to safe drinking water facilities through the construction or rehabilitation of water facilities in underserved communities of Abyei

429,083 emergency-affected and vulnerable rural people ensured access to sustainable improved sanitation facilities and 8.6 million emergency-affected and vulnerable rural population reached with hygiene promotion interventions

253,212 affected population reached with sexual and reproductive health services in Darfur, Kassala, White Nile, Blue Nile, Khartoum, Gadaref, El Obeid and South and West Kordofan

100,585 vulnerable persons (IDPs, refugees and host communities) mainly women and girls of reproductive age benefited from provision of 451 reproductive health kits/supplies (54% of the total need for 2017)

12,500 vulnerable women and girls of reproductive age received personal hygiene kits in Darfur/Jebel Marra, East Darfur (South Sudanese refugees) and South and West Kordofan

Provision of specialized legal, social, psychosocial and medical child-friendly protection services to 34,484 children (8,867 girls) in contact with the law, across Sudan’s 18 states

Enrolment in basic education (grades 1 to 8) increased from 5,037,618 children (46.4% girls) in 2011/2012 to 5,877,324

The proportion of children surviving to grade 8 increased from 56.5% in 2013 to 63.4% in 2017

2,170 children (1,481 boys and 689 girls), accounting for almost 27% of the total number of child perpetrators (8,124) diverted outside the judicial system

88% of children vaccinated against measles

6,896 people received antiretroviral therapy treatment

462,172 vulnerable children (190,875 girls: 271,297 boys) at risk or victims of violence, abuse, exploitation and neglect reached and benefited from comprehensive and timely gender-sensitive preventive and responsive specialized child protection services in 92 localities in 18 states, including localities affected by armed conflict and displacement

Community-based child protection networks in 16 states effectively contributed and supported psychosocial support, family tracing and reunification, gender-based violence and referral to protection services

Vulnerable women and girls of reproductive age ensured access to sustainable reproductive health services in Darfur, Kassala, White Nile, Blue Nile, Khartoum, Gadaref, El Obeid and South and West Kordofan

100,585 vulnerable persons (IDPs, refugees and host communities) mainly women and girls of reproductive age benefited from provision of 451 reproductive health kits/supplies (54% of the total need for 2017)

Provision of specialized legal, social, psychosocial and medical child-friendly protection services to 34,484 children (8,867 girls) in contact with the law, across Sudan’s 18 states

Enrolment in basic education (grades 1 to 8) increased from 5,037,618 children (46.4% girls) in 2011/2012 to 5,877,324

The proportion of children surviving to grade 8 increased from 56.5% in 2013 to 63.4% in 2017

2,170 children (1,481 boys and 689 girls), accounting for almost 27% of the total number of child perpetrators (8,124) diverted outside the judicial system

Community-based child protection networks in 16 states effectively contributed and supported psychosocial support, family tracing and reunification, gender-based violence and referral to protection services

Vulnerable women and girls of reproductive age ensured access to sustainable reproductive health services in Darfur, Kassala, White Nile, Blue Nile, Khartoum, Gadaref, El Obeid and South and West Kordofan

100,585 vulnerable persons (IDPs, refugees and host communities) mainly women and girls of reproductive age benefited from provision of 451 reproductive health kits/supplies (54% of the total need for 2017)
UNDAF Focus Area 4
Governance, Rule of Law and Institutional Capacity Development

$21.6 M

- 6 women centres established and supported to provide awareness raising, life skills trainings and psycho-social support in Darfur, South Kordofan and White Nile states.

- 29 legal aid desks established in 5 Darfur states to provide legal advice and legal representation to prison inmates.

- 450 participants attended a workshop for the Sudanese Parliamentary Women Caucus.

- 312 government counterparts trained in results-based planning and management in 12 states.

- 787 Sudanese from 18 countries were assisted to voluntarily return to Sudan.

- 120 national parliamentarians and decision makers trained/oriented to support laws that criminalize female genital mutilation with special focus on article 141.

- 120 judges and prosecutors trained/oriented to support laws that criminalize female genital mutilation.

- 140 state-level decision makers and legislators trained to support laws criminalizing female genital mutilation.

- 450 members trained on gender-based violence and psychosocial support (Darfur, South Kordofan and White Nile states). Estimated total of 15,000 individuals reached by awareness sessions on gender-based violence prevention.

- 202 service providers trained on gender-based violence prevention and response including psychosocial support and referral pathway.

- 882 high-level policy makers, military and police trained on protection violations particularly in the areas of conflict.

- 29 gender-based violence community-based protection networks/structures supported.

- 435 members trained on gender-based violence and psychosocial support. Estimated total of 15,000 individuals reached by awareness sessions on gender-based violence prevention.

- 376 migrants returned from Sudan to their countries of origin, particularly to Ethiopia, Nigeria and Somalia. Other countries include: Comoros, Tanzania, Cameroon, Côte d’Ivoire, Burkina Faso, and Chad.

- 29 rehabilitation of individuals directly assisted through the Migrant Resource and Response Centre and its mobile response team, including medical assistance, psychosocial counselling and emergency support.

- 4,000 migrants benefited from direct assistance provided through the Migrant Resource and Response Centre and its mobile response team, including medical assistance, psychosocial counselling and emergency support.

- 4,000 migrants returned from Sudan to their countries of origin, particularly to Ethiopia, Nigeria and Somalia. Other countries include: Comoros, Tanzania, Cameroon, Côte d’Ivoire, Burkina Faso, and Chad.
UNDAF Focus Area 5
Community Stabilization

Radio broadcast for rural population increased in Red Sea state from 20 min/day to 60 min/day

More than 300 teachers and community facilitators trained on adolescents affected by emergency situations, reaching 5,253 adolescents (3,168 male and 2,095 female)

73,000 individuals in 25 villages supported through peacefull coexistence activities, including community network and service mapping (e.g. youth, women, water and child protection committees)

Land tenure secured in 40 return villages through sketch-mapping and profiling, which improved communities’ perception of land tenure and land use

170 villages with a total temporary and permanent population of more than 141,000 individuals benefitted from peaceful coexistence and community mobilization projects in return, IDP, and refugee areas in North, South, West and Central Darfur

95,320 children and adolescents of IDP, host and returnee communities benefitted from community-based and mobile psychosocial support services

Material support provided to 900 households in refugee hosting areas

Strengthened capacity of 154 women-journalists in personal safety, enriching their capabilities to work in post-conflict areas increasing social cohe-sion there through publications in media

1,200 households from refugee and hosting communities (50 percent each) promoted the development of rural value chains and livelihoods through milk, livestock, and fodder production

Land secured for 3,050 IDP resettlements in Blue Nile state, which contributes to peaceful coexistence of the IDPs

19 community-based reconciliation mechanisms established or strengthened in West and North Darfur

129 local producers trained to improve production, secure stable livelihood and strengthen community resilience and social cohesion

48,788 boys and 46,532 girls

1,000 rural women from South Darfur trained in income-generating and other life skills for improving their livelihood

$ 11.5 M

Material support provided to 900 households in refugee hosting areas

Strengthened capacity of 154 women-journalists in personal safety, enriching their capabilities to work in post-conflict areas increasing social cohe-sion there through publications in media

1,200 households from refugee and hosting communities (50 percent each) promoted the development of rural value chains and livelihoods through milk, livestock, and fodder production

Land secured for 3,050 IDP resettlements in Blue Nile state, which contributes to peaceful coexistence of the IDPs

19 community-based reconciliation mechanisms established or strengthened in West and North Darfur

129 local producers trained to improve production, secure stable livelihood and strengthen community resilience and social cohesion

48,788 boys and 46,532 girls

1,000 rural women from South Darfur trained in income-generating and other life skills for improving their livelihood

$ 11.5 M
Community Stabilization

Prepared by
United Nations Resident Coordinator’s Office in Sudan
UNDP Sudan Gama’a Avenue, House 7, Block 5
P.O. Box 913
Postal Code 11111
Khartoum - Sudan

October 2018